How to get to Coconut Villa

By Bus from Bangkok

Air conditioned buses leave both Ekamai and Mochit Bus stations frequently to Trat from 6.00 am. Both bus stations are easily accessible by the BTS Skytrain. Buses depart almost every hour. The trip is about 5 hours. Some buses also collect at Suvarnabhumi airport. More info email info@kohmak.co.uk From Trat its about a 20 minute taxi ride to the Pier at Leam Ngob.

By Air

Bangkok airways fly daily to Trat airport from Bangkok, flying time is around 50 minutes.

Private Transfer

A private Taxi or Mini Van can be arranged to meet you at the airport or hotel in Bangkok. Journey time to the Pier is about 4 hours. In high season there are 4 speedboats every day to Koh Mak. The last boat leaves at 4.00 pm. The journey time is about 45 minutes. There is a slow wooden boat which takes about 3 hours (Not Recommended) On arrival at Koh Mak if you have a booking we will meet you at the Pier and take you to the Villa. You can also travel from Koh Chang to Koh Mak. The Bang Bao boat journeys from Koh Chang daily to Koh Mak during high season October to April. Journey time 3 hours.

New Catamaran Service to Koh Mak

The catamaran runs daily to and from Koh Mak and has a registered capacity of 72 passengers. Due to its shape and size it has a much better ability to ensure a comfortable ride than regular speedboats, especially during strong winds and rough seas. As it has a boarding bridge you can easily get on and off the boat, even with a wheelchair or a stroller. It has been built with the special needs of elderly people and children in mind. The catamaran gives you the freedom to walk around and enjoy the scenery, from the islands in the Gulf of Siam to the mountains on the mainland of Cambodia. The crossing takes approximately 1 hour and 30 min. You can enquire or book online at www.kohmakcatamaran.com

High Season on Koh Mak

Your holiday in Coconut Villa on Koh Mak is perfect for relaxing and soaking up the sun on the terraces of the Villa, the swimming pool or on one of the many beautiful, deserted, white sand beaches and swimming in the stunning clear blue water. Explore the deserted beaches by cycle or motorbike. Because the island is small and flat its perfect for exploring and getting close to nature on one of the jungle walks or for the more adventurous there is a 3 hour cycle track through plantations, jungle tracks, villages and along the coastline.

Being on the edge of the Koh Rang natural park there are many beautiful places to snorkel and scuba dive. The best corals can be seen at Koh Kra and Koh Tong Lang. There are many deep sites at Koh Rang for scuba divers to explore, trips can be arranged. Kayak around the Island or to the small offshore Islands of Koh Kham and Koh Rayang.
